Success Plan

Presentation
• Non-binding agreement
• Clarifies what to expect in terms of financing, work environment, ways to communicate, deliverables
• Aims to avoid any misunderstandings from the get-go

We strongly suggest using the Success Plan in preparation for your first official meeting with your supervisor at ÉTS.

A group of professors and students tested the Success Plan this Winter term. Adjustments are being made to improve the formula. Not all of the tool kit documents are available in English yet, but we are working on it!

Should you have any questions, please write to: Guichet-Cycles-Sup@etsmtl.ca

Webpage dedicated to the Success Plan (main document) and its tool kit:
https://www.etsmtl.ca/en/ets/governance/dean-of-studies-office/Graduate-studies-office/plan-de-reussite

This tool kit consists of the following documents*:

• Success Plan, the main piece (Docx);
• 10 good reasons for the Graduate (research) student to fill out and sign the Success Plan (Docx);
• 10 good reasons for the Supervisor to fill out and sign the Success Plan (PDF) (currently available in French);
• Roles and responsibilities of the supervisor (PDF) (currently available in French);
• Roles and responsibilities of the graduate (research) student (PDF) (currently available in French);
• Overall (research) project management sheet (model) (Zip-MPP) (currently available in French);
• Step-by-step (research) project sheet (model) (Docx) (currently available in French).

*Once the beta version of the Success Plan is successfully tested, all documents should be available in English.

Your first steps

Q15 — I am a doctoral student or I hold a scholarship from an international organization (as confirmed in my letter of admission), and I am exempt from the supplemental tuition fees for international students. I have received an invoice, and these fees still appear. What should I do?
R: Exemption subsidies are paid a few weeks after the beginning of each session. You do not have to worry about the first payment deadline or the late payment penalty that will eventually be applied. If your invoice has not been adjusted after this period, or if you notice an error, please contact the Registrar’s Office (accueilbdr@etsmtl.ca), which will carry out the necessary verification. Be sure to indicate your permanent code.

FAQ: Paying tuition fees

For any other question than the following concerning your invoice, please contact the Registrar’s Office accueilbdr@etsmtl.ca.

Q1 — I have registered for my courses. When and how will I receive my invoice?
R: Your invoice will be created within two to three weeks before the beginning of your session. You can find it in the SIGNET section of the MonETS portal.

Q2 — When do I have to pay my tuition fees?
R: You must respect the established deadlines for paying tuition fees for each session for which you are registered.

Q3 — How much do I have to pay before the first payment deadline?
R: You must pay the minimum payment required (pouvoir minimum requis) as indicated on your registration statement/invoice. This statement includes tuition fees plus all other related fees, along with the balance due for previous sessions, if applicable. The balance remaining on your invoice must be paid before the deadline for the second payment. Financial penalties apply to non-payment of tuition fees by the deadlines.

Q4 — What are the consequences if I don’t pay my tuition fees in full?
R: If you are unable to pay the minimum balance due by the payment deadline, a financial penalty of $25 will be added following each session. In addition, anyone who is in a default position with respect to payments will not have access to the registration system for the subsequent session, cannot obtain any transcript, accreditation or registration statement, and will not receive a diploma.

Q10 — I have completed all of my credits and I am currently writing my thesis or dissertation. How much will the tuition fees be for the session?
R: After completing your courses and paying for all course and research credits, a fixed amount is invoiced for each subsequent session by which your studies are extended or during which you are writing or defending your thesis or dissertation. For example, this fee is $222 (CAN) per semester for the 2020–2021 academic year.

Additional insurance

Housing and civil liability insurance
The RAMQ and Desjardins insurance policies do not cover your belongings or any damage that you might cause to others and their property.

• Housing and civil liability insurance is mandatory if you lie in the ETS dorms. Contact residences@etsmtl.ca for information.
• Optional for students living off campus, but highly recommended.
  › Simple: make an online request with different insurance companies once you have your address in Montreal.
  › You can get a student discount on this type of insurance by becoming a member of GENIUM 360 (réseaux des ingénieurs du Québec). Free membership for students.

Travel insurance/repatriation

› Included in the Desjardins policy for international students, certain conditions apply.
› The RAMQ does not cover repatriation in the case of invalidity, emergency or death and only covers certain medical costs outside of Quebec!

ATTENTION — If you are covered by the RAMQ and plan on travelling outside of Canada during your studies, it is essential to purchase private travel insurance to cover health expenses OR to enroll in the ASEQ supplemental plan.
